DR. WORK IS NAMED POSTMASTER-GENERAL

Washington.—President Harding sent to the Senate the nomination of Dr. Hubert Work, of Pueblo, Col., now First Assistant Postmas ter-General, to be Postmaster-General in place of Will H. Hays. The nomination was confirmed at once. Dr. Work assumed charged of the department on Saturday. Reports have been current for several weeks, since the choice of Dr. Work became probable, that his tenure may be temporary These reports have it that in the event Senator Harry S. New is defeated by Albert J. Beveridge for renomination in Indiana in May, or in the event he is nominated but defeated in the general election. Dr. Work will step aside and allow the President to appoint Senator New Postmaster General. The President wanted Mr. New in the Cabinet originally.
